

MATTHEW MACCHIETTO,
ASLA

LANDSCAPE ARCHITECT /
PROJECT MANAGER

Matthew Macchietto is a landscape architect focused on public projects addressing social equity, community engagement, and environmental resilience. Matthew is passionate about how newly migrated cultural groups perceive, influence, and relate to public space in neighborhood parks. His research and field work aims to start a conversation between disciplines on how to design community open space to be more sensitive, welcoming, and adaptable to cultural and economic change. Matthew's work has won awards and recognition from the American Society of Landscape Architects (ASLA), the Urban Land Institute, the Society for College and University Planning, and the Harvard Graduate School of Design.
